Howdy!

I'm mighty glad to meet you folks!

You know, you're lookin' at just about the most important mouse in West High — partly because I'm the only one and partly because I'm going to show you this school — from the inside out. We'll see it by means of what certain west coast industries call the "flashback".

Come on, and if you want to attract my attention you can yell, "Hey, you!" (—my mother never named me).

Guess I'm gettin' old 'cause I remember what this class of '49 did as freshmen when their officers were: president, Louis Newton; vice-president, Herbie Heiss; secretary, Pat Shelp; and treasurer, Barbara Caudry. They planned with Miss Una Pease, their adviser, many things, including the Shamrock Shuffle (Frosh-Soph dance).

Then when they returned as sophomores, ("wise fools"), they elected as their officers: Brudd Auther, president; Ruth Krentz, vice-president; Barbara Caudry, secretary; and Douglas Arundale, treasurer.

This class smashed some traditions of long standing in their Junior year—getting their class rings in the spring and working on the EOS staff. And oh, those campaigns! These Juniors, Joe Corrigan, president; Bob Strong, vice-president; Liane Morris, secretary; and Bill Mitchell, treasurer, were finally elected. The officers guiding the '49er's in their last year were president, Brudd Auther; vice-president, Cedric Benson; secretary, Cynthia Turner; and treasurer, Joyce Beamish. Advisers this year were Mr. Grant, Mr. Hafenrichter, Mr. Nebergal, Mr. Halfvarson, Miss Pease, and Miss Schoonmaker.

Here's the class of 1950 — another ambitious class. As proof of this, the 166 juniors elected on October 7, the following capable officers: Peter Krentz, president; Hugh Hollister, vice-president; Jill Cagle, secretary; and Dave Grey, treasurer. Judy Powell, Helen Schramm, Virginia Nehring, and Connie Wildman completed the cabinet. The advisers of the class were Miss Sauer, head adviser; Mr. Meyer, counselor; Miss Grandy, Miss Brown, Miss Hendricks, and Mr. Felts.

Some of the many things the class of '50 has accomplished in their third year of high school are the Junior class play, "The Great Big Door Step", which was a great success, their concession at the Band Carnival, and the Jr.-Sr. Prom (presented June 4 for the senior class).

The juniors have made up, I've noticed too, a large percentage of the members of the Band, A Capella Choir, and the Red and Blue staff.

By much hard work and many spectacular plays the juniors proved invaluable in sports. The football team was aided by the regular playing of several juniors, while the basketball team played more than half of the season with three juniors on the team.

The 178 returning sophomores looked a lot more confident as they came back to continue their education.

Looking in on a class meeting one day, I observed the capable officers and cabinet busily planning some event. Dean Guzeman was elected president; Doug Hill, vice-president; Tom Blair, secretary; and Burdette Enger, treasurer.

Eleanor Larson, Joanne Krentz, Rita Gilson, and Doree Farley completed the cabinet. The sophomores were assisted by their advisers: Miss Lydia Raymond, head adviser; Miss Helen Wood, counselor; Miss Oleda Rislow, Miss Mildred Spangler; Miss Merry Coffey; and Mr. Charles Friday.

The "Sophs" showed that they were ambitious, for they participated creditably in many activities. The entire Fresh-Soph cheer-leading team was composed of sophomores. Carol Hyman, captain; Jean Bridgeford, Janice Knapp, Joan McCrea, and Regina Wozniak were the "pepper-uppers."

The "Springtime Swing", held March 12, was decorated by many of the sophs, and other class members helped plan the dance to make it a big success. (Dean Guzeman suggested the name).

Al Seith explains the theme to be used for the Frosh-Soph dance to Mary Heitkotter and Vera Jacobson.

On September 8, I scurried out of the way in order to dodge the feet of the 212 freshmen who were wandering confusedly around the halls of their new alma mater. It didn't take them much longer, however, to learn their way around these hallowed corridors than it took them to realize it wasn't necessary to take every book home every night!

The "freshies" quickly got in the swing of things by electing capable officers: Alex Seith, president; Ronnie Carlson, vice-president; Ann Caughey, treasurer; and Ann Austin and Ann Bobo, co-secretaries. Ed Anderson, Joyce Rolf, and Richard Little completed the cabinet. Advisers were Miss Mary Holty, head adviser; Miss Louise Lane, counselor; Mr. Joe Axelson, Mr. Donald Paul, Mr. Clarence Blubaum, and Mr. Lew Stephens.

The "greenies" eagerly plunged into many activities offered such as sports, glee clubs, instrumental groups, and drama clubs besides doing a lot to help plan the Frosh-Soph dance (which was a great success!)

From a mouse's-eye-view, Prexy Jim Ferguson looked terribly important when he conducted meetings of the Student Council. But I did wish he would stop pounding that gavel so close to me!

I also wondered if Treasurer Ruth Krentz could appropriate some money for a new mouse house. I'd love one of those modern lustron jobs. I'd have Vice-President Joe Corrigan and Secretary Danny Flynn design it . . . hmmmm . . . "I move that . . . "

Ow! I slid out of my hole into Miss Hendricks' meeting and got a splinter in a very strategic place. Howard Matson, president, carried me over to Dale Badner, vice-president and she put a little band-aid on me. Jean Ann Watson, secretary, and Marlin Peterson, treasurer, met every month with a council at the chapter house. They almost sent me along with the box filled with gifts for Europe's children. At Christmas we helped some orphans' home in Freeport. It made me feel happy!

Creeping cautiously under the tea table, I heard Miss Winteringham, sponsor, talking to the officers — Barbara Caudry, "Mert" Benson, Anita Schalz, and Joan Telford, president. Did anyone see me nibble those crumbs? My little tummy was full also at the Mother-Daughter Tea, Valentine Tea, and Christmas Tea. Once during the year I even found a cozy place to sleep (when the Club gathered old clothes for the Bundle drive). On I scooted . . .

I am so proud! On Dad's Day, "Poppa Mouse" sat on the bench with all the other dads and he even had his own number. If Richie Smith, president of the Boys' Club, had given me the ball, I would have made a touchdown!

All year I was listed as a regular member in Jack Emmert's attendance book. (Sponsor Ridinger saw to that.)

Dan McClaskey, vice-president, and Howard Tracy, treasurer, are my buddies for life.

Scampering into a meeting of the Senior Drama club, I heard Joanne McNanna, the president, announce that each of the members would participate in a program. Joanne and the other officers, Doris Carter, secretary, and Jackie Sass, treasurer, were drawing up committees for these programs. I would have volunteered for several of them, but Miss Oleda Rislow, sponsor, told me that I have no talent. I did so want to be Hamlet, too!

I got a curtain call and everyone applauded! All year I was a trooper in the plays — First Dress Rehearsal, Not Tonight, and Indian Giver. Jodeen Fitzgerald, president, let me ride on their prize winning float. The forty-six members were peeved at me when I fell asleep in one of their costumes while they were working on the junior class play. Starr Cressy, vice-president, Joanne DeFrates, treasurer, and Sylvia Sinden, secretary, all helped Miss Brown.

What a lively bunch of sophomores there were in the Sophomore Drama Club of which a different member took charge each meeting. (I suspect this was President Eleanor Larson's idea. It's pretty soft for her and Helen Schmidt, the vice-president. Dorothy Pride, however, makes up for them because she is both secretary and treasurer!)

The club is very active; for instance: Miss Harriet Grandy, sponsor, accompanied them to see "Finian's Rainbow". . . . The luckies . . .

See the mascara on my whiskers? I just attended a meeting of the Freshman Drama Club! The officers are: Pat Johnson, president; Naomi Mitchell, vice-president; Joyce Hughes, secretary; and Sue Finley, treasurer.

The club, under the direction of Miss Louise Lane and Miss Jean Voigt, presented plays at their monthly meetings and had one lesson in makeup. Once starring me, they dramatized the "Pied Piper"! (Never could get that mascara off——)

"The Great Big Doorstep"

Crouching on the "Doorstep," I secretly sat in on lots of rehearsals of the Junior Class play, "The Great Big Doorstep." I say "secretly" because those finicky girls in the cast always ran when they saw me. Those rehearsals were loads of fun, though. The cast worked like madmen trying to perfect their dialects for this story of life along the ol' Mississippi.

Eddie "Oxie" and Beverly Kuhn were Mr. and Mrs. Crotchet, the parents of Topal, Joanne DeFrates; Evvie, Astrid Gerner; Arthur, Dave Snyder; Elna, Helen Schramm; and Fleece, Margery Greene. Romantic interest was supplied by Dick Morris, who played Tayo Delacroix and Bill Hewitt, who portrayed Mr. Tobis. Starr Cressy played Mrs. Beamont Crotchet . . . I love that name . . . Joyce Rukaber was Mrs. Dupre; and Bill Foote was Uncle Dewey.

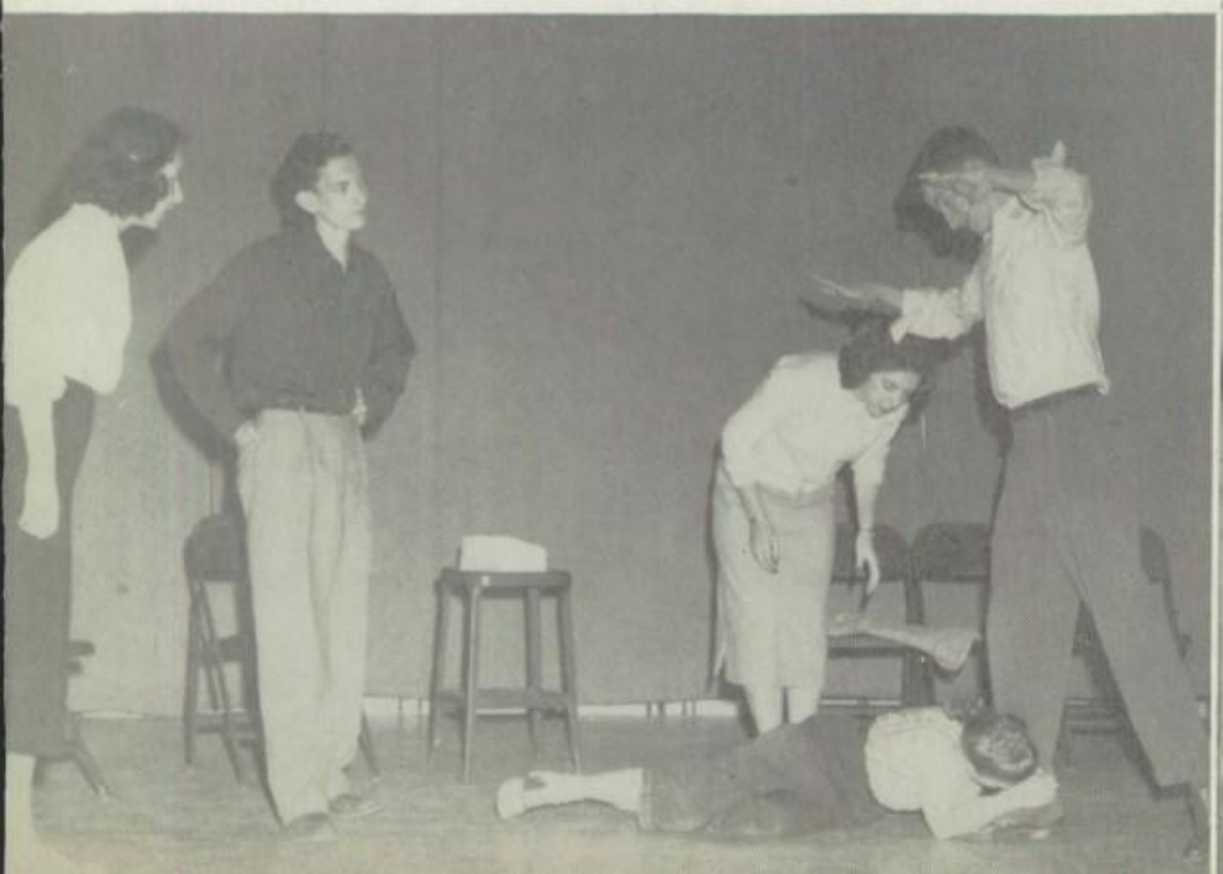
Gee . . . the funny accidents that happened on opening night! Beverly stepped into a pan of water and splashed it into my hole. I nearly drowned — but so did Bev! Eddie had a little trouble with the suspenders on his overalls, too! Little did he know I made the buttonholes larger, so that buttons would slip out! A mouse has to have his fun, doesn't he? Wonder if they noticed that hole in their GREAT BIG DOORSTEP?

"Meet Me in St. Louis"

A bad case of mumps prevented me from seeing rehearsals of the senior play, "Meet Me in St. Louis," May 19 and 20. (I got those swollen jaws from Director Oleda Rislow, who turned over first practices to Miss Henrietta Brown.)

The cast consisted of the following "characters": Mr. Smith, the kind and loving father, Ralph Council; Mrs. Smith, the gentle but firm mother, Barbara Caudry; Lon, the collegiated son, Sam Sollami; Rose, their eldest daughter, Cynthia Turner; Esther, her vivacious sixteen-year-old sister, Joan Telford; Agnes, their tom-boy sister, Joanne McNanna; Tootie, Dorothy Krull.

Others trodding the dramatic "boards" were: Grandpa, a spry old gent in his seventies, Marlin Peterson; John Shepard, a nice strapping fellow, Gerry Daw; Fred Gregory, a well-mannered boy of Esther's age, Jim Gibson; Lucille, an affected girl from the East, Bonnie Clark; Mr. Dodge, Mr. Smith's harrassed boss, John Clark; Mr. Duffy, Mr. Dodge's meek little "yes" man, Gene Gandrau; Katie, the Smith's good-humored Irish maid, Pat Shelp; Ida, a sweet, shy girl in love with Lon, Bette White; Mrs. Waughop, Joyce Beamish; and the conductor, Don Dart.



Eos

Red and Blue

"By-lines-headlines-DEADLINES!" Ralph Council, who 'copped' the coveted job as editor of the 1949 EOS, really had troubles, trials, and tribulations. (Maybe I should pass this 'cannon' over to him!) There is one consolation though — he had an able assistant, John Clark.

Howard Matson qualified for business manager with Dale Badner as his assistant. Editorial adviser was Mrs. Imogene Smith; Mr. Hugo Peterson, business; Miss Helena Sauer, art; Mr. Clarence Blubaum, photography. Barb Blair spent hours typing.

Cynthia Turner, activities editor, and Joanne McNanna and Mary Elliott, assistants, went out and dug up the info' about activities this year. (I usually tagged along to observe.)

The co-art editors, Janet Barber and Barbara Caudry, are very important people. (Especially Janet — she drew ME.) Liz Weiss and Beverly Kuhn assist in the art department.

All copy must be measured, checked, and ok'd by Shirley Barnes, copy editor. Ruth Krentz, administration editor, and Glenora Spidell, class editor, took care of all the people at West High.

The "doings" of our famous Blackhawks have been reported by Joe Corrigan, sports editor, and all the pictures in this book were taken by Keith Smukler, our able photographer, and Dick Charlet, assistant.

In one jam and out of another! This time it's Printer Leslie Gee who is on my tail (whoops! I mean trail). Gene Gandrau, editor-in-chief, first semester, took me upstairs to the RED AND BLUE office. In that little cubby-hole affair, I found Joanne McNanna and Roger Seagrist, associate editors first semester, making out dummy sheets and assigning headlines. Feature editors, Mary Elliott and Glenora Spidell, and the advertising managers, Bonnie Clark and Terry Pasilis were wrangling with Marge Olson, business manager, and Howard Tracy, sports editor. Bev Kuhn, art editor, and photographer Gene Peters, were at work along with the typists, Amber Newland, Caryl Hunt, and Grace Snyder. Just then, in came Mrs. Imogene Smith, the editorial adviser, so I was shoved into one of the bottom drawers. A new staff was chosen at the end of the semester: Roger Seagrist, editor; Joanne McNanna, copy editor; Gene Gandrau and Glenora Spidell, managing editor and news editor, respectively. Joanne DeFrates took over the post of city editor. Ruth Quackenbush and Joyce Morrison became the new advertising managers and Frank "Jet" Smith was propelled into the sports editorship.

Having finished my shower in the drinking fountain — "O-Sol-O-Mio" — I dropped in at the Junior-Senior Camera Club. I scurried under the door in time to hear the president, Ralph Council, ask Ann Jebens, secretary-treasurer, to read the minutes. While posing most magnificently atop the filing cabinet, I was discovered by the screams of Shirley Barnes, vice-president, and ejected. Oh well, I was just leaving anyway . . .

My flash bulb friends are in here. Strapping my "brownie" to my shoulder I went with the officers from both clubs on a wonderful field trip and picnic. Al Seith, freshman president helped me into Mr. Halfvarson's knapsack. Bob Schumaker, vice-president, and Fred Schussler, secretary-treasurer, brought "yummy" cheese for me. I decided to take sophomore president, Bill Patterson, and secretary-treasurer, Benny Alschuler, with me to visit my relatives in their "country homes."

Laboriously lugging out my Seven-League boots, I clambered to a meeting of the Travel club one Wednesday. I discovered that many unusual places had already been discussed and that the program for today was a talk by Corinna Moncada, senior, about her adventures in Mexico.

Bill McCullough was president, Ruth Krentz, vice-prexy; Martha Fagerstrom, secretary; and Howard Matson, treasurer; and Miss Una Pease, sponsor.

On I went into the meeting of the Frosh-Soph Travel Club. I squirmed under the feet of John Lager, program chairman. I was just getting comfy under my chair when Barbara Blackwood, president, sat right in front of me! So I didn't see the movies on Lake Louise and Banff. I was under this same chair when Corinna Moncada spoke about Mexico. Wonder how I'd look in a sombrero and red cape.

Calling all house hunters . . . I have just found that a Spanish gourd in Room 106 makes a wonderful home (for me that is).

In "El Club Espanol," sponsored by Miss Merry Coffey, the meetings are conducted in Spanish. I learned that Sue Podolak, the president, memorized the questions and the club memorized the answers! It looked like fun! Grace Snyder, vice-president; Ann Mary Ball, secretary; and Brudd Auther, treasurer, were the other officers.

Veni, vidi, vici . . . I had the Latin Club in such a tizzy this morning! To think that I — such a little fellow — could scare a group of people so much. Olga Quackenbush, treasurer, saw me first and screamed, "There's a mouse!" to Nellie Copp, secretary.

Jack Lindstrom, president, and Dave Donkle, vice-president, just laughed. After things calmed down, the fun started. Everyone played a Latin game under the direction of the sponsor, Miss Jeanita Peterson.

Oh, my aching back! Some "amazon" or "tarzan" must have fallen on me. Well that's what I get for trying to hide under one of those mats when the gym club members start limbering up.

When I crept out, I discovered that Carlene Wozniak and Ed Norris, co-captains, were displaying some mighty fancy tricks. The other members soon learned them and "passed them off" before Coach Ken Zimmerman and Miss Jane Schoonmaker, sponsors.

Am I blue from burrowing in carbon paper! President Dorothy Kasper and secretary Irene Musso tried to explain some of the Commercial Club's strange machines to me, but they are awfully mystifying! After they gave up, I hopped onto a table just in time to hear Sponsor Hugo Peterson telling treasurer Jean Chamberlain and vice-prexy Amber Newland that I was drinking up all the fluid for the hectograph machine! That stuff makes me whoozy . . . hic . . . hic . . . 'scuse me!

I chewed and tore ever so slowly on a wire. Bob Clark, president, was so excited when he found I had ripped all of the insulation off — but it tasted yummy! I really gummed up the movie machines this year. . . . He! He! Dick Bates, vice-president, and Dick Angell, secretary-treasurer, chased me with light bulbs.

During the class plays I scurried about and once I pulled the wrong switch! Mr. Ray Grant got after me!

I skittered about and fussed too much in the ventilator — and I missed the opening of the Vocational Club. Well, I remember the other meetings under the direction of Vincent DeMont, president. So much equipment has been added to the room! In these meetings all the members learn about different vocations from actual experience. Once I sneaked into the lunch box of Eugene Thayer, vice-president, and was carried to a factory which the club members toured! Wheee . . .

I have decided to resign from the Wood and Metal club. After due consideration concerning this matter, I feel it is best for all concerned, especially for me. Mr. W. P. Burkhard worked very hard to make the club the success it is today, and I feel he will understand. You see, all of the best mousetraps are made from wood and metal, (none of these plastic jobs for me!) and I'm getting out of here———!

Aaah! My new little home is finished. I built it in a niche in the wall in the print shop so I can watch Mr. Leslie Gee and the Graphic Arts Club. While sitting relaxed and comfy, I saw Lowell Jensen, president, directing the running of the noisy printing presses. Gene Ensminger, vice-president, was helping the members print Navy hospital menu covers. I have to move, though, to watch Ronnie Farren, secretary, get his fingers all inky with proof sheets.

Whee, it's great fun to slide down mountains of finger paint and land in great blobs of water colors at Paint Pot Club! President Barbara Caudry assured me that if I continued this practice they'd immortalize me by glazing and baking me in the kiln.

The other officers were Helen Schramm, vice-president; Dick Moroney, treasurer; Bessie Clark, secretary; and Miss Helena Sauer was the sponsor. (But their painting smocks don't compare with mine!)

Crash!— a dry book fell on my head and out of spite I started to chew the pages noisily. Librarian Mary Walker flew over and said, "Shush!" pointing to a great big sign, SILENCE! My! but I felt like a Casanova with all the darling library assistants: First period, Bessie Clark; second period, Olga Quackenbush; and then my buddies — third period, Dick Morris; Dave Binford — sixth period; Dale Badner, fourth period; and seventh period, Janice Knapp, and Irene Musso.

As the Home Economics Club officers, Jean Bridgeford, president; Barbara Mosley, vice-president; Donna Hornbeck, secretary; and Ruth Benson, treasurer; sat around the kitchen with the club adviser, Miss Hendricks, I crouched in the corner munching cheese. They were discussing the year's programs.

Pricking up my ears, I learned that they made the refreshments served at every meeting. A spotless kitchen, however, is no place for a mouse and I scampered out.

I never heard so many pros and cons . . . the car broke down on the way to the sectional debate . . . they blamed me! Even though we had to forfeit the first two debates, we won third place! I am just a little mascot and felt very honored when our team won twenty debates out of thirty in the Metropolitan Debate Union. Bill Foote and Jim Ferguson took me with them down state to discuss the question, "That the United Nations be revised into a Federal World Government."

I was just starting to sharpen my teeth on the leg of a chair in Mr. Hafenrichter's room when someone glowered at me. I peered out from behind some chemicals and heard Jerry Ellis, president, talking. I heard the reports of the treasurer, Joyce Beamish, and the secretary, Jo Rippberger. Bill Foote, vice-president, told them they were going "museum-seeing" in Chicago besides their regular "movie-meetings". (Wonder if Micky Mouse was shown?)

Just call me "Dead-Eye Dick"! I happened to wander into a Rifle club meeting one Thursday. Those boys are really marksmen! Not only can they handle, dismantle, and fire from different positions, they're all "hot" shots. Mr. Warren Felts was the sponsor, but Mr. Lew Mason taught them the art of handling a rifle. I crept around and also discovered that Lee Vincent is the president; Denny Gran, vice-president; and Roger Peters, secretary-treasurer.

Ooo — I am so-oo dizzy! In the middle of a game of badminton they mistook me for a shuttlecock and I was batted back and forth until my fur looked like waffle pique!

After being rescued by Miss Jane Schoonmaker, sponsor, I could attend all their remaining meetings. Each program had a little play about sports. The three officers: Laura Schuettner, president; Janet Barber, vice-president; and Marge Wilson, secretary-treasurer, took care of me.

I won a letter!! By winning a very heated rat race! Taking it to one of the "A" Club meetings, I came upon Don McGuire, the president, talking to the other officers. Dick Fitzgerald, vice-president; Frank Smith, secretary; Don Frazier, treasurer; and Coach Ken Zimmerman, sponsor, were discussing the requirement for entrance into the club. Each member must have one or more letter awards (transferable from other schools).

Here I come, club!

Orchestra

So many Freshman girls wanted to join the Glee Club this year that two groups were formed. My falsetto wasn't in as good condition as usual so I just listened and learned all about matching voices, singing in tune, following the baton, and reading notes. I helped give pitch for both their Christmas and February twenty-third concerts, and, therefore, am able to thoroughly endorse these groups for a job well done.

One day I wandered into Mr. Sten Halfvarson's room to take a nap sixth period, but ended up enjoying an hour of singing with the Boys' Glee Club. They were one of the best "beginner" groups and during the year they sang for the Christmas Concert, music assembly (February 23), Hill School (December 16), and the Oswego Women's Club (March 3). This group stressed ensemble work and acquired much skill during the year.

Every day during second period I practiced with the Junior Choir. We learned basic skills, such as note reading, interpretation, intonation, and balancing of parts. Our first performance was for the Christmas Concert and our second was for the student body on February 23. This appearance marked the beginning of a new era for us, since we wore robes for the first time. The negro spiritual "Climbin' Up the Mountain" was our favorite piece.

Yippeeee . . . there I went, hopping out of the bass viol in time to see twenty-five members of the orchestra gathered for a Saturday morning practice. The orchestra does not have established meeting times (so says Director Warren Felts) but because they have all had individual instruction, they sound very well. I usually join in the practices, but my squeak is hardly noticeable; everyone thinks it is Ruth Krentz and her violin!

Sousa's symphoneers have nothing on West High's band, directed by Warren Felts. Band officers this year were Sam Sollami, President; Marlin Peterson, Vice-president; Jean Chamberlain, Secretary; Paul Baudoin, Treasurer.

I'll never learn to play a tuba! Every day Sam Sollami, president, and vice-president, Marlin Peterson, tried vainly. All that would come out was a puff of air! I gave it up and now Betty White, drum majorette, is trying to get me to twirl her heavy baton. Once I fell and it hit my head and knocked me out. Oooooo! I was talking to Mr. Felts and he told me, "We have one of the finest bands West High has ever had."
Goodness! Look at all we have done. The big events of the year were the choir-band concert, football games, and the Spring Concert. Jean Chamberlain, secretary, and treasurer, Paul Baudouin, were among the forty-five members who went down state. At the Fox Valley Festival Concert at Elgin on April 25, I gave a wonderful marching exhibition. Inside the drum in the Memorial Day Parade wasn't such a good place tc be. Another headache — Next I'll try the flute!!!

An active member of most of the band activities is the dance band, snapped here during one of their practices.

Our songsters this year were led by Marguerite Nigro, president; Dick Fitzgerald, vice president; Pat Shelp, secretary; Shirley Barnes, treasurer.

Do, re, mi — you guessed it! I was practicing so I could join the A Capella. Imagine my mortification when I was informed by director Sten Halfvarson and the officers—president, Marguerite Nigro; vice-president, Dick Fitzgerald; secretary, Pat Shelp; and treasurer, Shirley Barnes — that membership in the Senior A Cappella Choir is limited to those with ability and interest in music. I was soon sentenced to silence in my hole in the wall.

Their first concert was given in October for the N. E. District Teacher's Convention. Following a busy Christmas season, the choir was invited to sing two concerts at DeKalb College. Another outstanding event this year was the Robe Inauguration Concert. My favorites from the above appearance were "Shepherd's Story," "We Praise Thee," and "Sunrise."

Following these concerts, "Steppin' Out", the Fox Valley Festival, and Baccalaureate came in rapid succession. All too soon the year came to an end, and on June 9, thirty-seven seniors sang with the choir for the last time, but the good times they had will never be forgotten.

Okay, Louie, drop the gun.

This kind of talent made pep rallies successful.

Oh, we've been workin' on the railroad.

The month of March was a busy time for me. The choir was preparing for its Spring Revue "Steppin' Out", so I had quite a few rehearsals to attend. The writers did a beautiful job. The plot was original, as were three of the songs. Of course, most of the scenery was original. Everyone in the choir had a special job. Curtain time was 8 o'clock on April 7 and 8. After the opening number "Steppin' Out" (Gilbert Freeman), the plot revolved around the romance of Dan (Joe Corrigan) and Linda (Marguerite Nigro) who went Steppin' out to a picnic, On the Avenue, and To a Nightclub. Gag man, "Mortimer", kept me in stitches, as did the Sleepwalkers. Other outstanding features were the kickline and several ensembles. Hits of the show were: "Spring Fever" and "Old Silly Sentimentalist Me" (Shirley Barnes), "Woodchuck Song," "You'll Never Walk Alone," and "Gabriel."

How sporty kin ya get?

Corrigan and Nigro wow public.

Captain Tom Zakosek hands Principal A. G. Haussler W. A.'s second Big Eight trophy in three years.

Despite terrific blocking by "Red" McGuire, fullback Dean Guzeman gets snowed under by Joliet forces.

Two Big 8 football championships in three years — that's our record since our Blackhawks, under the direction of "Ken" Zimmerman and "Chuck" Friday, battled their way to an undisputed Big Eight Championship title this year led by Captain Tom Zakosek.

Thrills and chills were present in the first three conference tilts. First, meeting Morris on their field, W. A. came through in the final period when Hawk halfback Dick Fitzgerald recovered a team fumble over goal. The following Friday DeKalb was our victim. Though three West Aurora touchdown runs were called back, we were able to obtain a 13-0 victory. Niles of Skokie, first Red and Blue home game, gave the W. A. rooters something to cheer about. Sophomore fullback, Dean Guzeman, who played a tremendous game, made the first Hawk tally by knifing over from the four-yard line. Pete Joy scored our next marker when he pushed over from the five.

"T" Formation

A pass from quarterback Don Gustafson to flanker John Biever, who carried the pigskin over, completed the first half scoring. We came back early in the third frame to score on a seven-yard scamper by Bob Strong, who made the conversion also.

Still a comparatively inexperienced squad, our Hawks traveled to LaSalle-Peru for their first Big Eight conflict. A second quarter drive brought us to our opponent's ten, and Dick Fitzgerald plunged over for our only touchdown. With beautiful perfection, Richie Smith kicked the all-important conversion. During the third frame L. P. came back to score on us, but they missed their extra point and gave us that first conference win, 7-6. We played West Rockford before a huge Homecoming crowd the succeeding week and trounced the Warriors 19-0. They just couldn't stop our all-Big-Eight-Conference sophomore fullback, Dean Guzeman. Dean was able to race over the Rockford line three times for the only touchdowns of the game. Richard Smith kicked the conversion.

Varsity Football

Strong as always, the Joliet eleven invaded our green October 15. West drew first blood as all-conference Dick Fitzgerald, who played a spectacular game, sprinted 71 yards for the primary score. The Steelmen made good a touchown drive in the third quarter and went ahead as they booted the extra point. With a 7-6 defeat staring them in the face our Hawk team "fired-up" and scored a second time by an aerial to end John Biever from quarterback Richie Smith.

East Rockford's Rabs, our next host club, gave us a hard battle. East scored first, thus giving us something to shoot at. We struck pay-dirt on a 15 yard scamper by Guzeman, but Rockford scored again, jumping to the lead by a 12-7 count. Our all-conference due, Richie Smith and Biever, came through again with a 25-yard pass with Biever on the receiving end. Final score: West 13, Rockford 12.

Hargis moves in to block as Strong charges on around DeKalb line.

Elgin, also, was beaten by our extra points. With the Maroons leading 12-7 in the last three minutes, Richie Smith scored on a quarterback sneak. He added the extra point in a like manner, making our conference victories total five. Freeport's Pretzels visited our field for our final game of the season before Thanksgiving. As host, back Dean Guzeman treated the Pretzels quite roughly, scoring in the opening quarter and coming back to score again in the second with a 58-yard touchdown trip. In the last frame, Richie Smith threw a perfect pass to Frank Smith for the Blackhawk's final marker. Linebackers Ed Norris and Dick Fitzgerald, with ends Frank Smith and John Biever, plus the remaining members of the forward wall, held Freeport to 6 points.

Only flaw in our record came Turkey Day as we played to a scoreless tie with our crosstown rivals, East Aurora.

Coach Lew Stephens, who has taught the fundamentals of football to our Hawklets for the past two years, was unable to develop our '48 team into a winning squad although he succeeded in instituting a fighting spirit in our underclass eleven. Our boys compiled a total of 72 points in the 10 games which they played, while their opponents tallied 138 markers. The "T" formation, used by the Varsity is a little tricky for the Frosh-Soph boys.

Runkle executes traffic run on muddy Elgin Field.

Max Baratz peers eagerly from truck while frosh-soph leave for a big conference game.

At the gridiron banquet held January 11, Coach Stephens with Assistant Coach Burckhard presented letters to 15 players. Backfield men Don Anderson, Tom Meidell, Dave Ochsenschlager, Leslie Reed, Jerome Runkle, and Bill Stevens were presented the traditional "A." Linemen Bob Albrecht, Ed Anderson, Dick Hedlund, Jack Lindstrom, Joe Masur, Harold Runkle, Earl Sidmore, Paul Strock, and Bill Stroud also received Fresh-Soph awards. Managers Gilbert Freeman, Bob Miller, Fred Schussler and Larry Youngren, were also awarded letters.

Possibly the greatest season in West High basketball history ended in Huff gymnasium at Champaign as the West cagers downed Nashville 49-39 for third place honors in the "Sweet Sixteen."

Our trip to Champaign started when we took the regional by tripping Wheaton, Mooseheart, and Naperville in the playoff. At the sectional tussle at Joliet, West toppled Downers Grove and rolled over Joliet 35-29. Meeting Elgin as our first down-state opponent dashed a few hopes since Elgin had won the Big Eight and was highly favored as the team to win the state tourney. Those at Huff witnessed a great game as Johnny Biever, all-state forward, scored 26 points to help clinch the battle for the West underdogs 45-42.

A highly praised Tilden Tech squad was next on the Red and Blue tourney list. Tilden played good ball all the way, leading by one point with less than thirty seconds to go. Although Tilden was stalling, Biever intercepted a Tilden pass, raced the length of the floor, and scored on a layup shot. Final score: West 34, Tilden 33.

Visibly tired, the Hawks played a losing game against the state championship team, Mt. Vernon, on the afternoon of the state finals. We completed the season by whipping Nashville 49-39 for third place honors. All-state honorable mention Frank Smith and Jerry Ellis turned in fine games while Captain-elect Biever was high with 18 points.

(Right) Make it, Carney!

First Row: Benson, Bricher, Anderson, Meidell, Lindstrom.
Second Row: Parker, Berg, Biever, Reed, Coach Friday.
Third Row: Alschuler, Guzeman, Powers, Fletcher, Runkle.

Shoot! The air is full of ducks.

One of the finest performances given by this yearling group was their final encounter with Elgin, second-place conference winner, who defeated West High 52-55. In this battle, West came back after a six-point halftime deficit to outscore the Maroons 20-16 in a fast-moving third period. However, the up-river club outscored West 15-14 in the final quarter.

At the annual banquet held April 21, Coach Charles Friday awarded well deserved letters to the following players: Don Anderson, Charles Benson, Jim Biever, Ransom Bricher, Larry Conway, Dean Guzeman, Jack Lindstrom, and Tom Meidell. Freshman awards were given to Eddie Anderson, Roald Berg, Dick Fletcher, Scott Powers, and Leslie Reed. Manager awards were presented to Ben Alschuler and Jerome Runkle.

Right: Don Anderson goes high in air to score two points for our underclassmen.

Captain Strong clears low hurdle - - -
Whoops - - - Splot.

- - - bang!

Coach Lew Stephens had but three varsity letter-men returning this season: Captain Bob Strong ran the low hurdles and broad jumps; Bill Mitchell ran the dashes; Dwight Hurlbut, broad jump and high jump.

These three boys together with Earl Sidmore also ran on our relay team. Our varsity distance runners were Merle Jensen, Pete Joy, and Frank Smith. Jensen ran the mile while Smith and Joy fought the 880.

Frank Smith and Don Frazier were our most consistent weight men. Both threw the shot and discus. Joe Luke and Paul Strocke did our Blackhawks pole-vaulting while Charlie Cain and Don Gustafson ran the high hurdles.

Our most promising fresh-soph point getters were Doug Hill, Dean Guzeman, Don Heldenberg.

Bill Mitchell, 440-man, speeds around a curve in his specialty.

Our net men this year were coached by Mr. Don Paul and captained by Peter Krentz. Tennis is swiftly becoming a very popular sport at West Aurora. The men reporting for practice were as follows: Jim Ferguson, Lee Thurow, Dave Binford, Murray Smith, Alex Rudolph, Tom Rice, Bill Foote, Robbie Ellis, Joe Gray, Dave Snyder, Ron Carlson, Gordon Snyder, and Captain Krentz.

The traveling squad was most frequently composed of Krentz, Foote, Binford, Rudolph, D. Snyder, Ferguson, and Smith. Our doubles combinations were Foote and Binford; Rudolph and D. Snyder; Ferguson and Smith.

Golf

This was Coach Joe Axelson's second year as golfing instructor for West Aurora. Ransom Bricher and John Biever received their varsity awards last year. Our third returning letterman was team captain Richie Smith. John Biever, who shoots in the high 70's was the Blackhawks' first man.
Howard Matson, Bob Clark, Ben Alschuler, Jack Stewart, Jerry Ellis, and Bob Carney were the remainder of the golf squad.

G. A. A. officers were Joanne McNanna, Secretary-Treasurer; Arlene Loeber, Point Chairman; Doris Carter, Vice-President; Carlene Wozniak, President.

Joanne Plum was another sterling performer at the lanes.

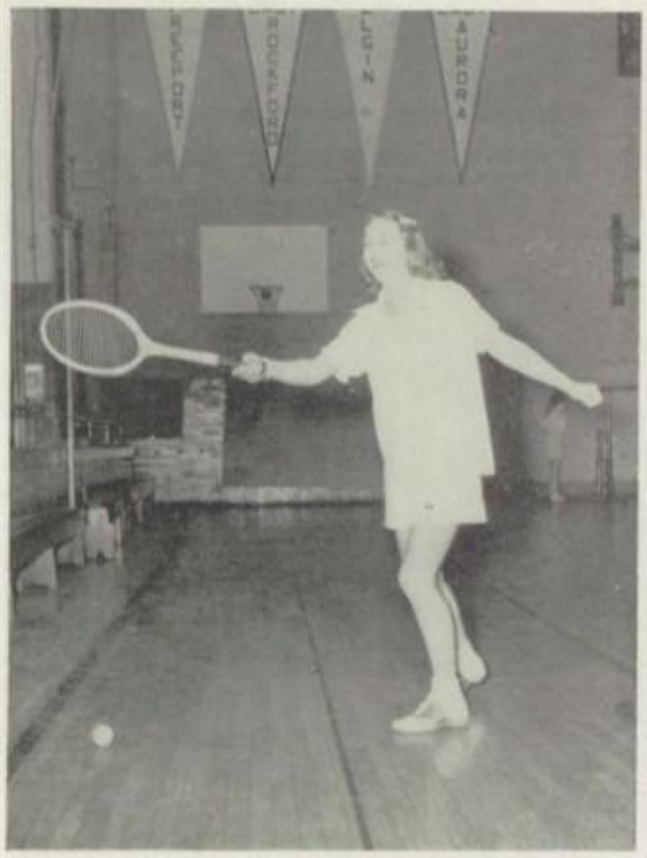
G. A. A.

President Carlene Wozniak of the G. A. A. has been very kind to me. She and the other officers, vice-president Doris Carter, and secretary-treasurer Joanne McNanna took me to Joliet for their play-day! We had lots of fun. I was nearly smashed by the falling bodies of over-eager members, but still it was fun.

The G. A. A. seems to be very active — they're always doing something. Their agenda for the year is arranged so they have bowling, swimming, volley-ball, table tennis, soccer, tennis, and basketball. I wasn't so wild about the table-tennis tho, because it made me dizzy! (Two girls kept the ball going back and forth so fast that I got dizzy watching it.)

Helen Schmidt, Marilyn Eck, Janice Knapp, Joanne Krentz served as G. A. A. Sports Managers for the year.

Doris Carter, season's highest bowler, prepares to rack up another strike.



Pete's sister, Ruth.

Five little mermaids.

G. A. A.

Finally giving up, I reeled over to one corner where some girls were discussing bowling. Having attempted several times, myself, the popular mouse sport known as B-B bowling, I naturally was interested in their tips.

All the girls in the G. A. A. are enthusiastic planners. They won first prize for the most original float in the Homecoming parade, they held a Sadie Hawkins dance, and they have had a concession at a basketball game. I notice, too, that they're always enthusiastic about letting me help — too enthusiastic! It's a well organized group for which Miss Jane Schoonmaker is responsible. Besides, she has the best-tooting whistle!

It's in, (whoops - - - foul!)

"Games are won and lost at the net."

Intramurals

Watch the birdie!

Our noon hour intramurals turned out to be very successful this year. We started the year off with a volley tournament in both fourth and fifth hour. Pete Joy's team breezed through their fourth hour games to win the championship, while Tom Gerner's fifth hour championship squad was closely followed by Dick Puklin's bunch.

Intramurals

Mac scores again.

Again in basketball Puklin's team was nosed out. Rolin Hurlbut's aggregation who had thirteen wins took fifth hour honors with Pete Joy's team again taking fourth hour championship with fifteen wins and three losses. Pete's team consisted of Ronny Farren, Wayne Halling, Ted Landgraf, John Hargus, Kenny Sempstrote, while Hurlbut had Frank Krezminski, Larry Youngren, Tom Gerner, Dick Morgan, and Richard Darby. Coach Lew Stephens who is in charge of intramurals finished the year with an Aerial Darts Tournament.

Come now, boys, you can't all have it.

Some follow-through you've got there, Marilyn.

Well, now that you've seen West High, I guess I'll have to be sayin' goodbye. Gotta get back to my hangout and think up some new ways of out-foxing the janitors — I'm the only one they haven't caught. Guess I'm just too-o-o smart for 'em.

So long!
